PILES.

Many a person has suffered for years with Internal, Bleeding, External or Itching Piles and has tried over and over again, for a remedy to cure but in vain. Thus it used to be, but things are changed, improvements have been made and wonderful discoveries—one of the most important of the greatest benefit to mankind is Briggs's Pile Remedies, which are warranted to cure Piles in every form if used in time according to directions.

CORNS! CORNS!

What is more annoying than Corns? What can be more oppressive than Bunions? What is more painful than Ingrowing Nails? Let the victim answer. The most distressing of these torments can be immediately relieved and [illegible] cured with Dr. J. Briggs's Alleviator and Curative.

LUNG DISEASES!

Diseases, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, &c.—The above complaints seem to be increasing in prevalence, and if not taken in time, may lead to that dreadful and fatal disease, consumption. What criminality to neglect them when the result may be so terrible! Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer is a positive remedy for all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest—never failing when used in the morning of affliction.

NEURALGIA

Headache, Neuralgia and Nervous Diseases. The wonderful effects of Dr. J. Briggs's Alleviator for the speedy cure of the above very prevalent and painful afflictions, is known to many thousands who have used it with the most unqualified success.

Sold by B. F. Bradbury, W. E. Mann, W. L. Alden, Co., H. Butler, J. F. Patten, Blood & Rowe, and Druggists generally.

G. H. KIDNEY'S

CATARACT WASHING MACHINE!

With this Machine the entire washing of a family of eight or ten persons, can be done in twenty five or thirty-five minutes, or eight or ten shirts washed in from eight to twelve minutes, bedding, table linen, &c. five to seven minutes. This machine CAN BE OPERATED WITH EASE BY A CHILD TEN OR TWELVE YEARS OLD.

Goods washed by this machine require no rubbing, and it is acknowledged by all who have tried it, that the goods are whiter and cleaner than when washed by hand.

This machine is light and easily handled, the cylinder is so constructed that it is removed, by merely lifting from the boiler. The boiler can then be used for other purposes.

This machine has been thoroughly tested by the best housekeepers, hired girls and washerwomen, and they are universally pleased with it, which cannot be said of any other machine in the market.

We challenge its equal in thoroughness of execution, and know that it will stand the test as a perfect machine. We have one in constant operation.

For Sight is Priceless!

THE DIAMOND GLASSES,

Manufactured by J. F. SPENCER & CO., New York which are now offered to the public are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the World to be the MOST PERFECT, Natural Artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles melted together and derive their name, "Diamond" on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

The Scientific Principle on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the finest manner in frames of the best quality of all materials used for that purpose. Their finish and durability cannot be surpassed.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.

LOWELL & SPENCER,

Jewelers and Opticians are Sole Agents for Bangor Maine, from whom they can only be obtained. These goods are not supplied to Peddlers, at any price.

AGENTS TO CANVASS FOR THE BANGOR WEEKLY COURIER

Dental Card.

I wish to say a word to the Gentlemen and Ladies of Bangor and vicinity. As parents you would do more for your children than for yourselves. A gentleman in Bangor, who is fifty years old, was in my office in April and said that he would give me one hundred dollars if I would save one tooth in his mouth without extracting it. But he was too late. If a man will thus value one tooth, what should he do for his children.

Now if you cannot save your own you can save the teeth of your children. Almost every day some father or mother will come to the office with some dear child to have me extract some aching tooth. I examine the mouth and find that the painful tooth is not a temporary but a permanent one. The parent is surprised, you are wrong she has never had but one tooth there she will certainly have a permanent tooth when this one is out of the way.

A very large proportion of our patrons have never known or have forgotten that in our first set we have but twenty teeth. And that all teeth that grow back of the twenty are permanent ones thirty two in all. I have extracted within the past year, several permanent teeth for one little girl who was not eleven years old. Will you parents suffer your children to suffer for their life time by your neglect? If by neglect you have lost your natural teeth a good editor will tell you where to go for the best artificial ones. Hundreds of people in Bangor and vicinity will endorse by their own experience all that he has said in his paper.

DR. J. K. LINCOLN.—Though we have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the gentleman, yet we have reason to believe that he is a most skillful practitioner of the dental art. At least he has made one old face in our house look young again, and has fitted, by art, a pair of jaws to masticate the food again which dame nature thought to deprive of this privilege a little too soon. We think the work and composition of the two full sets of teeth he has inserted cannot be exceled anywhere.—Rural Intelligencer

My price now is $50 for a whole set of the best artificial teeth $25 for a half set.

Important Notice

TO

Ship Owners.

AMERICAN LLOYDS OFFICE, Burling Slip, New York, Jan. 31, 1871.

The Register for 1871 is now ready. The January Supplements will contain the introduction to the history of the "Register." In order to supply the demand for the Exposition, on extra edition will be printed and furnished gratuitously to all parties in possession of a book called the "Record," or a book called the "American Lloyds Universal."

HARTSHORN & KING.

The American Lloyds Register, being the acknowledged standard of American surveys of shipping, approved by underwriters generally, and adopted by the Peruvian Government as a standard for the selection of ships to carry Guano, also by the California Board of Underwriters and the West India Lloyds at Havana, &c., makes it important to owners to have their vessels classed in this "Register." Having competent surveyors throughout the State of Maine, I am prepared to order or make surveys personally, of those apply, and to grant certificates under the "Standard Rules" issued by the Board. Also parties can be supplied with copies of the American Lloyds Register, for 1871, by sending their orders to me at the National Insurance Company, Bangor.

KENTUCKY CHIVALRY

A correspondent of the Boston Transcript tells of a Ku Klux barbarism at Fitchburg, near Berea Kentucky, on a Mr. Wheeler, a Christian farmer. His story is attested by Rev Mr Fairchild, President of Berea College and Rev J. G. Fee pastor of the Church of the Bereans. He went to Fitchburg, called on some colored people who had been students at Berea, took tea with a colored family, went to prayer meeting at a colored church. Coming home they attacked him and he escaped. But in the night he says—

"I was called up by a cry. Open the door. I looked cautiously out and saw by the light of the furnace fires twenty or thirty men in line, some or all with guns. Several were soon at our door shaking it violently and calling, Open the door, you shan't be hurt. My wife said, O what shall we do? Pray, said I, Jesus will take care of me. Knowing that resistance would be more than useless, I opened the door. There stood the landlord with a light and a half dozen men who seized me, dragged me down stairs and rushed me barefoot over the cinder, the leader shouting 'Fall in' the left double quick. Meantime the leader pounded me with his fist, uttering the most terrible curses and oaths. In reply to some threats of theirs I said, I love Jesus and he will take care of me. 'Yes' said they, you Methodist hypocrite you'll see how Jesus will take care of you when you are hanging twenty feet high. I said, You may hang me but you cannot harm me. About a quarter of a mile from town they halted at a large log, the leader seized me by the hair, another by the feet and stretched me over a log and two strong men began to whip me with large hickory whips. After they had struck several times (I counted thirty nine blows) they stopped for a parley.

"Their only accusation against me was that I was a Northern man with Northern principles, that I associated with 'niggers, and had come to establish a 'nigger' school. I told them that I was formerly from Michigan, and held Northern principles, but had no intention of establishing a colored school. They said, You must give up your principles. I replied, 'I cannot.' 'Then we will whip them out of you.' This, said I, 'you cannot do.' 'Then we will hang you.' I said, 'This will not kill my principles.' They added a dozen lashes, then took me to a spring, and at my request, let me drink. They asked if I had a family, and if I wished to write to them. I said, If I never hoped to see them again, I would. The officers retired for consultation, and determined to give me ten more lashes and an hour to leave town. As my business was done and we were expected to go at daylight, I promised to leave within the time. 'Now boys' they said, 'give it to him.' I folded my arms, and they gave me ten lashes about my shoulders. I was very thankful that I could receive the blows in a new place. Having sworn most awful vengence if I should reveal their names, they let me go. It was so dark I could not distingush any faces.

"While I was gone from the hotel my wife entreated in vain for some persons to follow after me. Though there were twenty or thirty lodgers at the hotel, and many of the company's hands within easy call no one seemed inclined to do anything about it.

"So much it still costs to serve the Lord in Kentucky. That dark and bloody ground' is still true to its earliest name. 'How long, O Lord, how long?'"

Boyd's Reminiscences of Fifty Years contains the following anecdote, the scene of which was in the diocese of Lincoln.

"A clergyman, a character in his way and a favorite with his bishop and every one else, had a parish in an extremely funny district. The bishop, taking the position into consideration, authorized the incumbent to perform duty only every alternate Sunday during the winter. But a complaint having reached his lordship that the reverend gentleman had not had the doors of his church open for the previous six weeks, he was obliged to administer a sharp letter of rebuke. To this the parson replied, 'My lord,—I have had the honor to receive your lordship's letter, and all I have, in explanation to your lordship, to say is, that the devil himself cannot get at my parishioners during the winter, and I promise your lordship to be there before him in the spring.'"

There is also a curious example of "taking time by the forelock."

"My grandmother once awoke my grandfather in the middle of the night, and told him she much feared their son Willie had become deranged as she had been listening to him, for some time speaking loudly and rapidly to himself. Her husband listened, came to the same conclusion, and they forthwith hurried into their boy's bedroom to know what was the matter. Willie's explanation was, that as they were going to the seaside next day, he wished to save time, and was saying his prayers over and over to last him during the holidays."

THE PUBLICATION OF THE TREATY

The consideration of the terms of the Treaty of Washington seems likely to be indefinitely protracted in the Senate, while that austere assemblage devotes its time to the vindication of its dignity and the work of disciplining the New York Tribune's corps of Washington reporters. We are not quite satisfied that the proceedings of the past few days have added largely to the Senatorial dignity and are not without apprehension that the upshot of this affair will contribute as little of prestige to our grave and reverend law makers. There is no question as to the right of the Senate to keep its own secrets— [illegible]—and if such an investigation can [illegible] and stop the leaks there is no reason why a committee should not be empowered [illegible] the caulking. Whether an important [illegible] like that now pending should properly [illegible] withheld from the people is another and [illegible] question about which there may be different opinions but the experience of the [illegible] has shown the difficulty of keeping such [illegible] from the people and aside from the [illegible] employed it is certain [illegible] anxious for this information [illegible] that its prompt official publication [illegible] satisfied this general desire and [illegible] wrangle with correspondents. The Senate having summoned the reporters [illegible] vindicating itself by their [illegible] it would seem that their emphatic [illegible] the document was not obtained [illegible] influence of any per[illegible] with that body [illegible] as the British members [illegible] and others furnished with [illegible] Treaty were not under obliga[illegible] the Senate for secrecy nor subject to [illegible] whatever considerations of [illegible] honor may have been in[illegible] information should prove [illegible] obtained from sources outside [illegible] as the correspondents distinctly [illegible] difficult to see what jurisdiction [illegible] could take of the offense. The [illegible] that of investigating each [illegible] their own body seems much more [illegible] and it would have implified the [illegible] course had been adopted at the out[illegible]. It may not be so comfortable for Sena[illegible] to answer delicate questions as to ask [illegible] but the facts should be as accessible [illegible] lips of a member who betrayed official [illegible] as from those of the reporter to whom [illegible] imparted.

The morality of some of the methods used [illegible] obtaining information for the newspapers may justly be questioned as the press should [illegible] amenable to the dictates of honesty and propriety but it has become [illegible] these days to decide where [illegible] cases and effrontery begins and the [illegible] with which the public receive the [illegible] questionable zeal stimulates a rivalry [illegible] breaks down all barriers. The various [illegible] the treatment of this affair [illegible] commentary on the competi[illegible] that exists. The Tribune boasts of [illegible] that which was not intended for [illegible] World lectures the Tribune [illegible] the first principles of honor in so [illegible] then asserts that the version given [illegible] authentic but that it gives in its [illegible] columns the precise text which action [illegible] is very similar to that [illegible] condemns.

If the Senate is justified in compelling those [illegible] to testify it will not be likely to [illegible] its purpose by detaining them in [illegible] accommodations at the Capitol [illegible] is to let the matter go over [illegible] dignified to abandon it at [illegible]. There are intimations that the feud [illegible] the New York Senators is a power[illegible] agency in the prosecution of the matter [illegible] the sooner each Senator is put [illegible] facings before the Committee, [illegible] the Senate will relieve itself of this [illegible] the Conkling Fenton quarrel. Let [illegible] Senator be put upon his oath and then [illegible] deliberately decided to compel the re[illegible] testify the Senate will have to carry the matter through to the end, or its [illegible] seriously [illegible] than the publication complained of.

[illegible] Senate debate on Thursday upon [illegible] to be pursued with the refractory [illegible] correspondents Mr Wilson ex[illegible] at Mr Chandler's desire to [illegible] session to find out who [illegible] for the newspapers, remark[illegible] that the Senator himself was one of the [illegible] his personal knowledge to which [illegible] Mr Wilson [illegible] that Senators talked too freely about [illegible] session and that the [illegible] correspondents of the newspapers [illegible] gathered all the news they required [illegible] Senators to put [illegible] the truth be [illegible] that a majority of the Senate were guilty [illegible] leakage. Mr Chandler thought this an [illegible] as he had always suspected [illegible] Senator (Wilson) of being leaky but he [illegible] against the Senator confessing his [illegible]. The Senate refused to order the Committee to sit during the recess and it was agreed to hold the witnesses until they [illegible] ready to testify the Committee to be [illegible] of their readiness to answer and if it shall fail to assemble in ten days thereafter, the witnesses will be discharged. Mr Sumner thought the Herald should receive the same treatment as the Tribune. White and Ramsdell are in the custody of the Sergeant-at-arms who has provided them with accommodations in one of the Committee rooms.

The Congressional Committee on the Ku Klux outrages on Friday, all the members being present but Representatives Cook and Robinson of Ill, appointed a sub-committee of eight composed of Senator Scott, Chairman, Senators Poole and Blair and Representatives Poland, Coburn, Stevenson, Beck and Van Trump to proceed with the investigation wherever they may deem it expedient.— This sub-committee has authority to take testimony and to appoint sub-committees of their own number and will report to the full committee on the 20th September or earlier if desirable. Visits are to be made to all localities regarded as in a disturbed condition. Mr Bayard wished to restrict the testimony to acts occurring since the passage of the enforcement act, but his proposal was voted down by the Republican members. The joint select committee will meet again Sept. 20th, and the sub-committee holds its first session Saturday.

VALLANDIGHAM'S "NEW DEPARTURE." At the Montgomery County Convention in Dayton, Ohio on Thursday, C L Vallandigham from the Committee on Resolutions reported a New Democratic-Departure platform which is to be offered as a ground work for the general platform of the party. The resolutions, which were prepared by Vallandigham, declare that the Democrats unite upon the living issues of the day, accept the legitimate results of the war, so far as waged for its ostensible purpose, and fully concur in the three several amendments to the Constitution recently adopted and acquiesce in the same, as no longer issues before the country. They declare that the Democratic party pledges itself to faithful and absolute enforcement of the Constitution as it now is, so as to secure equal rights to all persons without distinction of race, color or condition; demand absolute equality for each and every State in the Union, oppose centralization and consolidation of powers in the general government. Financial and other subjects are treated with unusual liberality, but the election and Ku Klux bills are emphatically denounced, as is the Republican party.

Vallandigham spoke at length in favor of this new bid for notoriety and the resolutions were adopted. We are afraid that "Val's" Southern allies will question the sincerity of his conversion and repudiate his acceptance of the situation.

THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE CONSTABULARY. The State Constabulary law recommended by the majority report of the Legislative Committee and which passed the Massachusetts House on Friday is substantially as follows:

It provides for the appointment by the Governor of three Commissioners, who shall appoint, not to exceed one hundred constables, to be subject to their regulation, though under the direct control of a chief constable, also to be appointed by the Board of Commissioners. The constables shall exercise all common law and statutory powers, except the service of civil process, together with all powers heretofore given to the Constable of the Commonwealth and his deputies, all fees are to be paid into the State Treasury, the Commissioners are to meet at least once a month, and to make a regular report to the Governor and Council, before the 31st of each December, the Governor shall in any emergency, of which he is to be the judge, assume control of all or part of the force, heavy penalties are provided for any attempt to bribe constables, or for any constables who shall be bribed. The act repeals the act of 1865, appointing the existing State police, except so far as relates to any cases now in courts and is to take effect, so far as the appointment of Commissioners is concerned, on the 1st of July, the compensation of the Commissioners is to be $5 a day, of the chief constable, $3000 a year, and of the other constables, $1200 per annum, exclusive in each case of actual travelling expenses.

THE DARIEN EXPEDITION—PERILS OF A BOAT'S CREW. Late advices from Panama report that a twelve-oared launch belonging to the U S Steamer Resaca and carrying the mails from Chipagatta to Panama 120 miles, was capsized on the 8th inst. off Chippilla Island and Chas Bradenball seaman, with letters and documents and $1000 in specie were lost. Lieut. Commander Barclay was in command of the launch and after struggling with the waves for four hours he with his men succeeded in righting the boat. All hands had been in the water up to their necks, and they rowed amid intense sufferings for 24 hours after the wreck. They then lashed themselves to oars and plunged into the surf where they nearly perished, but finally reached the shore where they found a man in a hut on the beach and there passed the night.— Next morning no vestige of the launch could be seen and with Panama 30 miles distant and no conveyance, the party walked through the woods suffering from heat, exhaustion and insects. They stopped at the house of Senor Arezma which is half way and were kindly treated. The party arrived at Panama on the 11th inst when they were well cared for.— Lieut Barclay's coolness and courage are much praised by the seamen. The operations of the expedition are almost finished. The Steamer Resaca was awaiting the arrival of the party from Diorde which would return to Panama in a few days. The two exploring parties met at the end of April, and selected for the depression a spot near Paya. After a thorough survey the lowest elevation was found to be 716 feet. In January, Commander Selfridge merely reconnoitered the locality and estimated the altitude of Diorde with a pocket compass. The actual survey has just been completed which settles the question.— Tunnelling is recommended. The explorers on the Atlantic side suffered terribly from sickness, but there were no deaths. Those on the Pacific side, including officers and doctors are convalescent. It is expected that both parties will soon return to the Guard and Resaca. The feasibility of this route is unfavorably regarded.

William Carleton of Charleston, Mass. has donated fifty thousand dollars to the College at Northfield Minn and it is hereafter to be known as Carleton College.

The New Brunswick Legislature has adopted by unanimous votes in both branches, resolutions condemning the terms of the Treaty of Washington so far as they affect the interests of the British Provinces.

The N Y Tribune says the animus of the persecution of its Washington correspondents, consists in Senator Conkling's determination to fix upon Senator Fenton the responsibility of furnishing the copy of the treaty.

The State Constabulary bill as reported by a majority of the Committee, passed the Massachusetts House on Friday, 92 to 77. The bills concerning cheap travel on railways and to establish the Boston & Albany Railroad Trust Company, were defeated in the Senate.

It is said that out of more than five hundred letters which have been sent to Gov Jewell in approbation of the exposure of the frauds on the ballot box at the recent State election, fully one third have been written by Democrats who voted for English.

The South Carolina Tax Payers' Convention was made up of 124 delegates and alternates, of whom about six were Republicans. There was but one colored member, Mr Shrewsbury of Charleston. The Convention is well spoken of by some of the Republican journals of South Carolina, and by many at the North.

The Mobile Register is satisfied that Gen Sherman merits high praise for his New-Orleans Ku-Klux speech. It "had some prejudices against him in connection with that Columbia business and a few other little memories," but is willing to forget it all now, and take back its former abuse. As another Democratic Journal remarks, the Presidency is of more importance to that party than all its principles.

THE FIGHTING ON THE ISTHMUS. Advices from Panama to the 12th inst., state that three hundred rebels under the command of Herrea and Dias, arrived at Charera, sixteen miles from Panama on the 11th inst, and a force of five hundred strong was expected to attack the city momentarily by land. The Government had prepared for its defence with 600 State and 300 National troops, all well armed and with the moral support of the community. The fighting was likely to be outside of the city. Carreoso had every confidence and the Government success was regarded as certain. The American Consul received three communications from Herrea, the rebel leader, demanding his conduct and the seizure of Montijo, and promising to respect the lives and property of foreigners. He also wrote to the President demanding the surrender of the city. The reply given was that if an attack was made on the city, not a rebel would be spared. Carreoso and the Generals of the National forces have issued a circular to the different consuls and agents, promising troops to protect foreigners if necessary. The rebels control the Departments of Chiriqui, Veragnos and Los Santos. There was no man-of-war in port, but the Ossipee was expected daily and the Resaca on the 19th. With a view to avoiding bloodshed, Carreoso sent communications to the rebels, explaining his ability to defend the city and the impossibility of a rebel success. No reply had been received.

The revolution in Guatemala is reported as gaining strength and likely to overthrow the present Government. San Salvador is at peace.

The body found Friday week by the Hudson River fishermen, near Poughkeepsie, has been recognized as that of Jack Stevens, a notorious river steamer sneak thief, who having been detected in an attempt to rob a passenger had jumped overboard with a life preserver and drowned.

CONSUMPTION.

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE,

By J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self assuring, self convincing.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes sympathize with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result and the setting in with all its distressing symptoms of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood searching, alterative properties of calomel but unlike calomel they LEAVE NO STING BEHIND.

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver like a clock is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic in conjunction with the Pills permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings it prepares them for expectoration and lo in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well, it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased and yet because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet, they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases and moral certainty in all others is sinful. Dr Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption, confined to my bed and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time. As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength and have grown in flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds, my present weight is two hundred and twenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr J H. Schenck, Jr still continue to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M to 3 P M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses, the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them: First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of the morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Rare Chance.

A Valuable House for Sale,

The owner, having removed from the city, wishes to sell this house, situated on West Broadway. It is a large new, two-story house with a French roof, and is furnished throughout in the best manner and with all the modern improvements. It is situated on one of the pleasantest street in the city, and all of the surroundings are as good as could be found anywhere. The lot contains about seven eighths of an acre (102 feet on the street, and about 350 feet back) and is all under a high state of cultivation. The soil is very nice and light. There are nearly all kinds of fruit trees and shrubbery on the lot, and a nice garden beside the house. It is evident that such a chance is offered to anyone wishing to buy a nice house.

It must be sold immediately. For particulars inquire at Head, Broad Street, Bangor.

Soldiers of the War of 1812.

ATTENTION!

Congress has passed a law giving a Pension of $8 per month to the officers soldiers and Seamen of the war of 1812 who served sixty days or over, and to the widows of such as have died, and who were married previous to 1815 thus doing justice to this brave and meritorious band of patriots. I have all the rolls and records of this service, and they are not to be found at any other place in this State, to my knowledge.

I will give every soldier the benefit of these records to establish his claim to a pension, and I will assist him in the prompt and speedy prosecution of his claim. If the soldiers discharge is lost these records are invaluable.

The fee is fixed by law at $10, no charge made unless a pension is obtained.

Application can be made in person at my office in Bangor or by letter, giving name of Company officers, date and length of service, &c.

A Few Words to the Ladies.

Many ladies, particularly mothers nursing, complain of a tired listless feeling, or complete exhaustion on arising in the morning. On the wife and mother devolves the responsibility of regulating the duties of the household. Her cares are numerous, and the mental as well as the physical powers are frequently called into requisition. She often finds her slightest occupation a weary task and existence a burden, while at the same time she has no regular disease. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters if resorted to at this period, will prove an unfailing remedy for this annoying lassitude. The effects of this potent agent are soon seen in the rosy cheek and elastic step of the head of the family as with restored health and renewed spirits she takes her accustomed place in the family circle. If this friend in need be regularly used those depressing symptoms will never be complained of, and not only would lassitude not be experienced, but many diseases following its advent be avoided. As a medical agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used the Bitters attest its virtues and commend it to use.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 19.

The Lieut. Governor in a speech proroguing the Legislature, to-day said that the result of deliberations of the Joint High Commission at Washington, so far as our Dominion and Provincial interests are involved, is calculated to excite alarm and dissatisfaction, but we cannot for a moment suppose that the Dominion Parliament will give its consent to those parts of the treaty which dispose of our invaluable fishery rights for the veriest mockery of an equivalent, when we should have received in return therefor, at least the free admission to the United States markets of our ships, coal and lumber.

HORACE GREELEY AT GALVESTON

GALVESTON, Texas, May 18.

Horace Greeley arrived here this morning. He was met by Mayor McKee and a Committee of the city Council. Col. Thrasher welcomed him on behalf of the municipality in a few well chosen words to which Mr. Greeley responded briefly.

THE SENATE IN SPECIAL SESSION.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock. Not more than 24 member were present at the opening of the proceedings.

Mr Harlan remarked that it appeared from the discussion yesterday and the day before that certain advance copies of what purported to be the Treaty of Washington were communicated to members of the Senate before the official document was communicated to this body on the 10th inst. The Vice President reminded the Senator that the Senate had not yet promulgated the fact that any such treaty had been communicated to the Senate

Mr Harlan begged pardon and said that the Senate by its recent proceedings had so declared

Mr Sumner said the resolutions adopted yesterday in the open Senate advertised it to the world.

Mr Harlan remarked that it had been stated in the debate that certain papers had been privately communicated in unusual number to Senators and that the text of those papers was similar to the papers printed in the confidence of the Senate It was also stated that the Assistant Secretary of State had informed the Select Committee of the exact number of copies printed by the Department of State, and that he was able to account for the possession of each of them.—It was also said by members of the Committee on Investigation that if they were permitted to proceed in the line they had adopted the disclosure of the document would be traced to a certain member of the Senate—He supposed that every one knew that the Committee on Foreign Relations were on confidential terms with the State Department and if any Senators had copies, the members of that Committee furnished them with them They all concurred with him that it would be proper to call each Senator who is supposed to have had an advanced copy of the paper that he might be examined before the Committee He made the suggestion in order to relieve the delicacy of any Senator in the matter The members of the Committee as far as he had conferred with them regarded the thing as proper to be done

Mr Morrill of Me suggested that there were several other copies furnished outside of those placed in the hands of the Committee on Foreign Relations, therefore the examination should be extended to all members who obtained advanced copies Several voices, Certainly, that should be done'

Mr Fenton said I am glad my friend from Iowa has made the request that those Senators furnished with advanced copies of the treaty should be examined by the Investigating Committee with a view to their vindication as it offers me an opportunity to make a statement and suggest for myself and so far as I have a right for others, that every member of the Senate may appear before this Committee for the same purpose — I will read from the Patriot of this city in an article referring to this investigation as follows

During the last two days Mr Carpenter and Mr Conkling have been bold in declaring that if the Senate would insist upon its rights and exert its authority, the Committee would fasten the responsibility upon a Senator and they have not hesitated in a semi public manner almost to point to Mr Fenton, saying in the language of Nathan to David Thou art the man'

If the Senator from New York or the Senator from Wisconsin were present, I should ask them to state to the Senate whether in an official, semi official or any other manner they had made statements or insinuations that would warrant such a publication But although they are out of their seats at this moment, I cannot allow the occasion to pass without saying a word I will simply state the facts I arrived here Wednesday, the 10th inst. I was not favored with an advance copy of the treaty nor did I have or see an advance copy or any other copy, except as it was read from the Secretary's desk, until Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock when a Senate copy was placed in my hands full ten hours after it appeared in the Tribune

The intimation, therefore, that I had any claim, to do with or knowledge of the disclosures to the Tribune, is entirely unwarranted by the circumstances, and a positive charge would have been no less infamous than wanton and ridiculous I am free to say that I should not thus characterize the matter had it not come to me from other sources than the Patriot that an attempt had been made to connect me in some way with this transaction In conclusion I beg to ask that every Senator have an opportunity to appear before the Committee and vindicate himself under such forms and solemnities as the Committee may prescribe

Mr Harlan moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of Executive business

Mr Morton said that he desired to make a statement He had been informed of an attempt to connect his name with a violation of the obligation of secrecy

Mr Trumbull said that he was sorry that the Chairman of the Investigating Committee was not present, but as a member of that Committee he desired to say that so far as the examination had proceeded there was no information from any source pointing to or indicating that any Senator had furnished a copy of the treaty No one had said or intimated before the Committee that either the Senator from New York or the Senator from Indiana or any other Senator had given to outside parties a copy of the treaty

Mr Sumner as a member of the Select Committee, confirmed Mr Trumbull's statement

Mr Morton remarked that the Senator from Wis (Carpenter) Chairman of the Committee had stated in a most pointed and significant manner that objections had been made to the examination apparently from fear of exposure, and if it were allowed to go on some Senator would certainly be implicated

Mr Trumbull repeated that nothing of the kind appeared before the Committee

Mr Morton resumed saying that one Senator intimated that the copy came from him (Morton) As he at the proper time would be prepared to make a full showing, he would now content himself by saying that the intimation was an atrocious and cowardly falsehood There was not a circumstance of which he had knowledge that could sustain it It was made out of whole cloth

After further discussion the Senate went into Executive session on the treaty

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
City of Bangor, May 16th, 1871

TO THE HON. CITY COUNCIL

Gentlemen,—An order passed by both boards May 11 h, authorizing an appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars and the use of Norombega and City Halls to the Trustees of the State Agricultural Society for this and the ensuing year, for holding a State Fair, is returned without my approval

Doubting the expediency of such expenditure, when the calls on the City Treasury are so numerous and so urgent, and when our taxes are so onerous, I can but hope you will, on more mature reflection be inclined to reconsider the order as inexpedient and illegal

The County Agricultural Society can have funds the Fair ground corporation have ample grounds, our farmers, our artizans, our manufacturers our stock breeders, can if they will, combined make such an attractive exhibition as the people of the county and our city would be proud of and in any personal or municipal aid we can render, not inconsistent with our oaths of office, it will give me pleasure to join and co-operate with you Respectfully,

BUSINESS ITEMS.

THE SAFEST AND BEST The very ample security of the European & North American Railway Bonds, and the present large business of the Road, which will be heavily increased immediately on its completion by the traffic to and from the Provinces, creates most general and wide-spread confidence in these securities as investments. The existence of a Safety fund, (with ample resources,) which accumulates rapidly each year, provides directly for the payment of the Principal of these Bonds, while most Railroads, paying interest on their Bonds promptly, yet set no sum aside each year to create means to pay the Principal when due.

The provision in this case, wisely and prudently made, ensures payment of these Bonds beyond all question. Savings Banks, Insurance Companies, holders of Trust Funds and other cautious investors, in this and other States, are taking large amounts of these securities as being in every way the most desirable in the market. Holders of U. S. Bonds are also taking advantage of the opportunity to exchange their 5-20s for these, and thereby secure the handsome difference which at present exists between the prices of the two. $1000 in U. S. Bonds can be exchanged for $1000 E. & N. A. R. Bonds and the holder receives from $200 to $275 in cash, besides, (according to the kind of U. S. Bonds Exchanged.)

The E. & N. A. R. Bonds, costing but $900 (and interest from March 1,) in Currency for each $1000 Bond, pay six and two-thirds per cent. interest in Gold. This is equivalent to EIGHT AND ONE HALF per cent. in Currency, at present price of Gold—and no higher rate can well be obtained on really First-class
